

Peer-to-Peer Learning Exchange Fisheries Management for Caribbean Marine Protected Areas

Saba, September 25-28, 2018

A network for learning among Caribbean marine resource managers

1

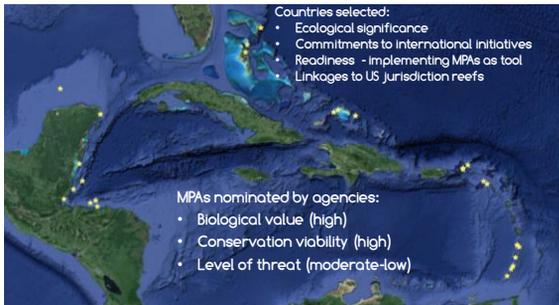

Photo: Carricou, D. Baker

A network for learning among Caribbean marine resource managers

2

10 Caribbean countries/territories,
30 coral reef MPAs nominated by local agencies

A network for learning among Caribbean marine resource managers

3

4

A network for learning among Caribbean marine resource managers

5

Photo: Sandy Island/Oyster Bed MPA, E. Doyle

6

20 elements of management capacity

A network for learning among Caribbean marine resource managers

7

20 elements of management capacity

A network for learning among Caribbean marine resource managers

8

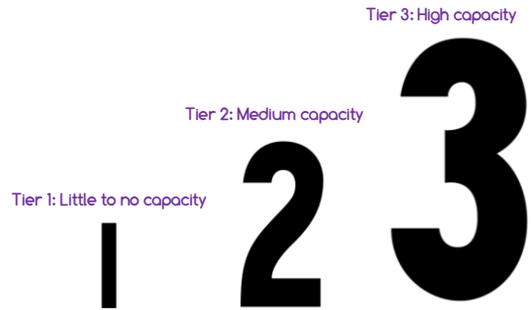

- Sustainable financing
- Enforcement
- SocMon
- Outreach and education
- Bio-physical monitoring

A network for learning among Caribbean marine resource managers

9

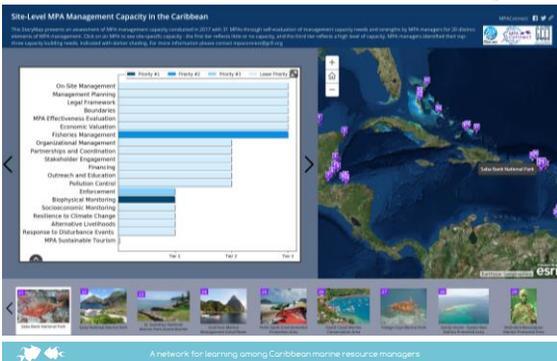

Capacity Assessment Tool
Tiered approach

A network for learning among Caribbean marine resource managers

10

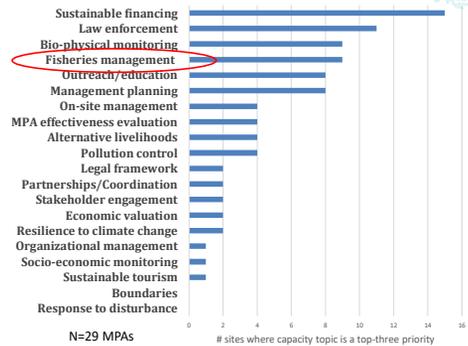

Site-level example: Saba Bank National Park

A network for learning among Caribbean marine resource managers

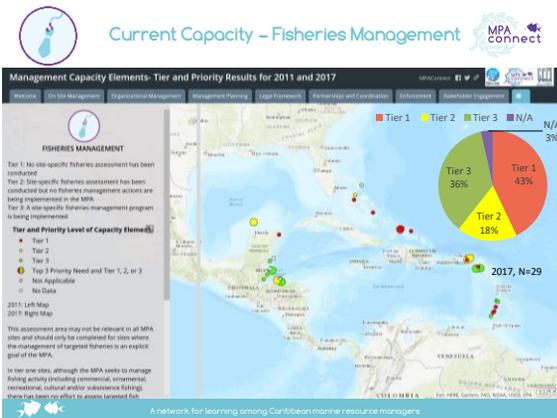

11

2017 Priority Capacity Building Needs

A network for learning among Caribbean marine resource managers

12

13

14

CONTACT

Emma Doyle
 MPA Connect
 Coordinator,
 Gulf and Caribbean
 Fisheries Institute (GCFI)

Dana Wusinich-Mendez
 Atlantic and Caribbean
 Team Lead, NOAA Coral
 Reef Conservation
 Program

emma.doyle@gcfi.org
 Phone: +1 (832) 566-0484

dana.wusinich-mendez@noaa.gov
 Phone: +1 (301) 204-7143

www.gcfi.org/initiatives/mpa-capacity-program/

A partnership between:
 GCFI and CORAL REEF

A network for learning among Caribbean marine resource managers

15